LOYOLA HIGH SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

LOYOLA IS

a man named thomas o'rourke was born in connecticut in 1911. his family later moved west, moving thomas o'rourke in- to loyola high school in 1926. he graduated in 1930 with a caption in the yearbook calling him a 'gentle Knight.' father thomas o'rourke returned to loyola high school 5 years ago to teach, to counsel and to superintend the school buildings and grounds. thomas o'rourke entered the jesuit seminary at los gatos in the fall of 1930. in 1943 he was ordained a priest. six years later he was made minister at loyola univer- sity.

this annual is dedicated to the 'gentle Knight,' thomas o'rourke, mr. o'rourke, and father o'rourke, a student, a teacher and an administrator, and to years which were themselves dedicated to a cause, to a religion, and to education, all of which were considered to be paramount by one man — Father thomas o'rourke, S.J.

AT LOYOLA

The office of Rector is perhaps the most important job at Loyola. It requires a man who is capable of obtaining all pertinent facts and coming to a sound decision. But most of all, it requires a leader — a man capable of quick and efficient action.

Fr. Robert St. Clair, S.J., is such a man. Under his guidance Loyola has grown and developed; a new auditorium has been completed, and art and drama have achieved greater prominence in the lives of Loyolans. But above this, he has given us an example of personal action and dedication. He has shown us that whether we teach, work, or help our fellow man in another way, we will become truly alive.

The good principal must be more than just an administrator; if he is to lead his students to manhood he must be a man of action. It is evident to any Loyolan that Fr. Edwin McDermott, S.J., is such a man. He exemplifies the Loyola spirit of action in his many duties, ranging from guiding a major school through its accreditation to appropriating dance funds. And in fulfilling these duties, he builds the mold to shape the leaders and the doers—the Loyola men.

Fr. John Geiszel, S.J., is in his second year as vice-principal since returning to Loyola in 1965. During his administration he has proficiently guided the students of Loyola to maturity in appearance, attitude and actions; and thus, he is responsible for the fine image of the men of Loyola.

CENTENNIAL 20 LOYOLA 7. The first game of Loyola's season for 1966 pitted the Cubs against Centennial High, the team ranked second in the CIF. Centennial's speed and experience overcame the spirit so traditional in Loyola's history. Two touchdown runs by the Apaches' all-CIF most valuable player, Mickey Cureton, handed Loyola their first opening game loss in six years.

LOYOLA 27 GLENDALE 0. Loyola's hard-fighting Cubs, coming back from their opening setback, overpowered the Glendale Dynamiters. Loyola's strong defense caused eight Glendale fumbles, five of which Loyola recovered. The Cubs also outgained the Dynamiters, 271 yards to only 96 by Glendale.

LOYOLA 28 NOTRE DAME 7. The fighting Cubs of Loyola had evidently put on their winning gloves, this time against the Notre Dame Knights. They exhibited a highly effective offensive punch, and followed with a high-spirited defense. In this victory they revealed themselves unquestionably as a strong contender for the Catholic League crown. LOYOLA 28 PARAMOUNT 7. Loyola's offense came into its own in this game. Ed Moore, Senior tailback, sparked the Cubs onward, leading them across the goal line three times. Loyola's defense men, led by Greg Hendren, Ken Elie, Tim Johnson, Bernie Clougherty, and Ted Von der Ahe, consistently threw back Paramount's drives.

LOYOLA 33 ST. ANTHONY 7. Loyola's first home-field game was a major victory. The Cubs beat back the Saints of Saint Anthony everywhere. Outstanding were Bernie Clougherty, who ran back an interception for a 53 yard touchdown, and Junior Guy Gaumont, who led the Cubs to a last minute score. LOYOLA 19 SERRA 0. Loyola's gridmen, unable to move for most of the game, relied chiefly on a solid defense and an intermittent offense to beat the Serra Cavaliers. Against a team supposed to be a patsy, the Cubs had to fight for every point. Seniors Ed Moore and Tom Tolman dominated the offensive, with Moore carrying for over 200 yards, and Tolman averaging 13 yards per carry. LOYOLA 27 MOUNT CARMEL 12. When the Cubs ran on the field Saturday night, they knew that the battle with their arch-enemies, the Carmel Crusaders, would be a tough one. Although both teams scored often, the Cub defense was superior, and again an outstanding running display by Ed Moore secured the victory.

LOYOLA 31 CATHEDRAL 7. Loyola's high spirited Cubs rolled over the Phantoms for their 37th consecutive Catholic League win. The Cub offense marched down the field time after time, while a stout defense kept the Phantoms to a net yardage of minus 12 yards. Capitalizing on four interceptions and a blocked punt, Coach Mario Di Muro's ace team clinched at least a tie for the Catholic League crown. PIUS X 20 LOYOLA 6 "Defeated" is a word seldom used to describe the Loyola Cubs, but defeat was certainly what the Pius Warriors handed to the Cubs. Their spirit, hustle, and speed simply overwhelmed the Loyola forces in the last half.

Still, the Cubs had nothing to be ashamed of,
they were in there fighting all the way, and kept the game a very close one until the very end.

LOYOLA 7 SANTA BARBARA 7. On a windy, chilly evening, the Cubs of Loyola earned their way to the second round of the CIF playoffs by punching over four extra first downs to eliminate the Dons of Santa Barbara. Costly penalties plagued the Cubs throughout the game, and two scores were called back by the referees. But an impressive showing by the defense squad helped the offensive eleven to get up from each setback and try again. When the final gun went off, the Cubs ran off the field with a hard-fought, well-deserved victory under the CIF playoff rules.

MATER DEI 34 LOYOLA 0. Loyola ended its season for 1966, losing to what was then the number one ranked school in the state, the Mater Dei Monarchs. Although the Cubs were hampered by a constant downpour, the outcome of the game was never in doubt, as the superior team from Orange County displayed overpowering running and blocking ability. Still, Loyola's spirit and determination never wavered, and they continued to fight to the end. The record of 8 wins and 3 losses is still something to be proud of, and something for the 1967 team to aim for next year.

JAY VEES

This year's Junior Varsity missed out on the league championship by one game. They played Pius X, their last game of the season, and lost. Their defeat did not present to them an unsuccessful season, but rather a year in which they all knew they did their best.

Under two very fine coaches and former students, Rich Vanis and Tim Deakers, the team developed into a well knit ball club. That year for preparation for varsity brought out the finest in players like Tony Clougherty, Tom Swartz, Joe Muto, Bob Fitzgerald, and Max Ruffcorn. The record, the players, and the coaches all showed the results of a prosperous season, a winning Loyola season.

FROSH

Those busy freshmen of Loyola's gridiron again carried on the tradition of victory this year. Under the able hands of Coaches Leonard and Adrian Varni, Bob Baxter, and Mr. Hanlon, S.J., the team formed into a highly spirited, hard hitting club.

The squad showed a perfect record (6-0) in league play to become Loyola's 7th straight CATHOLIC LEAGUE CHAMPS.

The frosh were unusually large this year in size and in spirit. Players like Wicks and Hillier beefed up the defensive line while inspirational Douglass and Corr supported the offense in the backfield. Little Peter Cody was noted for not missing a day of practice. He exemplified the spirit and determination the whole team possessed throughout the season.

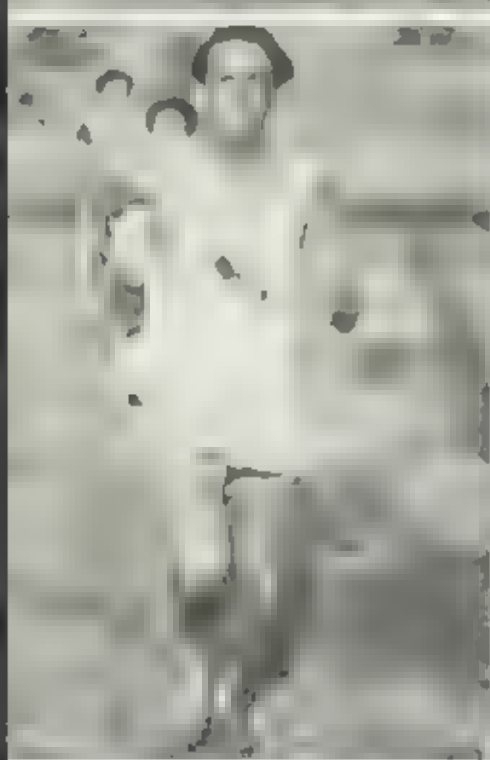

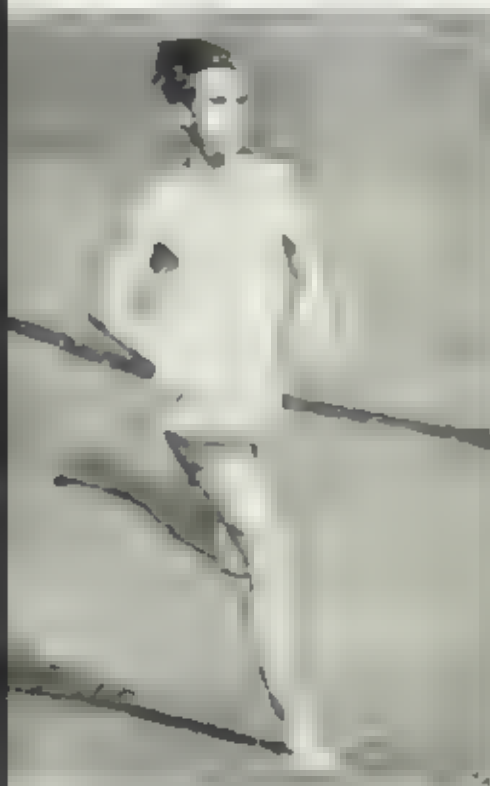

Despite numerous setbacks and injuries to key runners, this year's spirited and determined cross country squad, coached by Father Duggan, S.J. and Mr. Crillo, S.J., represented Loyola excellently. Outstanding times were clocked in the Serra, St. Anthony, and All-Catholic meets. The varsity squad rallied behind Mark Lindsay, Mark Morris and James Dumas. At the end of the season, senior Lindsay was awarded for his consistently outstanding performances, while juniors Morris and Dumas were awarded for spirit and for overall improvement respectively. The J.V.'s and B's produced fine men in Tim Rafael, Joe Bastien, Paul Pan, Tom Joy, and Alan Doi. Others, like Tony Merrill and Steve Ludden should be congratulated for their contributions beyond their running ability. A note of added thanks was given by Fr. Duggan to sophomore Larry Scott who wasn't able to run a full season.

With all but two runners returning, next year's team will be well seasoned and should finish high in the league.

At the start of this year's season, practice games were held to develop the team's potential. In fourteen games the team improved steadily under the guidance of veteran coach "Bill" Sanchez. Senior forward Greg Young led the team in scoring, averaging 18 points per game. Charlie "Hatchet Man" Curtis, the other forward, kept the team loose with his leaping rebounds and overall hustle. Seniors Rick Jorgensborg (forward-guard) and Bob Duncan (center) were outstanding for their determination and endurance, while team captain Pat Kelly and Senior Carlos Orellana united the team with their efficient shooting and ball-handling.

The overall outlook was tremendous. After taking second in the Dominguez tournament, the Cubs entered the Catholic League with a nine game winning streak and a pre-season record of 11 wins and 3 losses.

LOYOLA 56 NOTRE DAME 53. Loyola's Catholic League opener against Notre Dame was as exciting as a game could be. Throughout the contest, not more than five points separated the two heated rivals. Loyola hit 17 out of 21 in the first half, and tremendous performances came from Bob Duncan, Rick Jorgensborg, and Carlos Orellana, whose hot shooting secured the victory for Loyola. LOYOLA 31 SAINT ANTHONY 39. With semester exams just starting, the Cubs had more on their minds than Saint Anthony, and their lack of practice cost them the second Catholic League game. Still, the squad profited from the loss; no team was going to beat Loyola without great hustle and spirit. Coach Sanchez made sure of that in their practices.

LOYOLA 46 PIUS X 42. With a large home crowd cheering them on, Loyola was ahead from the beginning, leading by 10 points at the half. In the last period the Warriors closed to within three points from the Cubs, but the men in blue held them, and again emerged triumphant. LOYOLA 40 MOUNT CARMEL 39. The Loyola-Mount Carmel game was the closest of the season. After the first quarter, the Crusaders led for two periods, until, in the final period, clutch shots by Orellana and Jorgensborg closed their lead to one. Finally, with just ten seconds to go, Greg Young made the final basket of the game to put the Cubs ahead. LOYOLA 43 CATHEDRAL 34. The first half of the Cathedral game went very slowly, as both teams played carefully, searching for weaknesses in their opponents. In the second half, both teams came alive, and shot heavily. Even the best efforts of the Phantoms, however, could not close the Cubs' lead, and the Cubs took their fourth League victory. LOYOLA 52 SERRA 50. A usually easy club to beat, Serra put on an unexpectedly fine showing, leading the Cubs for much of the game. In the last period, however, the Cubs closed to a 50-50 tie, and Pat Kelly, with less than a minute to go, sank two points to win the game. LOYOLA 65 NOTRE DAME 42. This game was one of the best of the season. Everything was right for the Cubs' fifth straight Catholic League victory. After a slow start, the Cubs went wild; Greg Young scored 23 points to lead the team, Pat Kelly scored 13, and Carl Orellana 11. LOYOLA 49 ST. ANTHONY 47. St. Anthony, just half a game behind the Cubs, was determined to knock Loyola out of first place. Although St. Anthony led by 7 at the half, the Cubs came back to tie, but the Saints would not give up. After frantic scoring by both sides, Rick Jorgensborg, with three seconds to go, swished in the winning basket. LOYOLA 64 PIUS X 49. The Cubs, after their victory over St. Anthony, drove on and easily defeated the Warriors of Downey. A quick scoring streak gave the Cubs a strong lead, and the Warriors could not close the gap. Now the Cubs needed just one more win to cinch the League Title.

LOYOLA 72 CARMEL 50. On their own gym, Mt. Carmel can play as if they were champions, but the Cubs turned the trick. They out hustled and out shot the Crusaders to become CATHOLIC LEAGUE CHAMPS for the third straight year. Led by top scorers Greg Young (23), and Carlos Orellana (16), Loyola spurts ahead to gain one of their easiest victories of the season. LOYOLA 34 CATHEDRAL 31. As the Cathedral team took the court they had only one idea in mind—to knock off the Catholic League Champs. When the game started, the Cub five knew it was going to be rough for Cathedral went into a full game stall. The first two quarters were ones of opportunity for both teams with the half ending in a 13-13 tie. Then Loyola came back with 11 in the third quarter to Cathedral's 5. This did not daunt the Crusaders, and they fought back within two points of the Cubs. But Charlie Curtis scored two clutch free throws with seven seconds left that put the ice on the game. LOYOLA 62 SERRA 50. Loyola's blue and white came into this game riding a nine game win streak. Serra, playing as tough as in their first meeting, still could not slow down the Cub machine. In those 32 minutes the Cubs demonstrated their teamwork and overall hustle that made their season one of the best in past years. LOYOLA 55 EL RANCHO 63. On a fateful Tuesday night, Loyola kept up a tradition which has gone on for four years. Once again the Loyola eagers psyched out in the opening round of the AAA C.I.F. playoffs, yet finishing with the best record (22-4), they are to be congratulated.

JV's

This year's Junior Varsity, united under Coach Burns, was a special team. Though they did not win the league, they produced such great talent as sophomores Tony Pradia, Tom Heiserman, and Mike Nelson. Special note should be given to Tom O'Mara who will undoubtedly be a valuable asset to Loyola's basketball future.

B's

Under the dynamic guidance of their new coach, Mr. Pastizzo, S.J., Loyola's upper freshmen team took its proud place next to the Varsity's and Junior Varsity's fine seasons. With freshmen Dick Garner, John Hankey and Mike Bruno the team displayed much new potential.

C's

Loyola's little men of blue demonstrated great new spirit in their first encounter with interscholastic competition. Mr. Murphy, S.J., directed them to a fine season, preparing them for future triumphs in athletic endeavors.

VARSITY

Loyola's varsity tennis team had one of its greatest seasons in many years. Under the guidance of a new coach, Mr. John Hanlon, S.J., the Cubs devastated most of their opponents, including Beverly Hills High, a top-ranking CIF team. There were eight returning lettermen this year: Seniors Bernie LeSage (team captain), Jack Darnell, Bob Thomson, Ed Ferns, and Juniors Rick Brendall, Tom Shaver, Greg Hickey, and Rick Goethals. In addition, there were four new members: Pat Steel, a Sophomore transfer, and the number one man on the team, Peter Litchman, Doug Lalonde, and Mike Gessel.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The junior varsity team also had a fine season. Composed of underclassmen (Sophomores Pat Easton, Steve Bull, Brian Alessini, Fred Sraka, Eric Jussen, Phil Brady, Bill Shinner, Tom Heiserman, Pat Pereira, and George Zorb; Freshmen Tony Beliz and Phil Koen) the junior varsity serves mainly as a training ground for the varsity, and many of the players show great potential for next year's team.

TENNIS

SWIMMING

Under the leadership of Mr. Raymond Gubser, the swim team had a very successful season. With such swimmers as Seniors Jerry Hankins, Roger Burshe, and George Kerker, and Juniors Dan Terhaggen and Jim Henneberry, who set a school record in the 200 meter medley, the team overcame most of their opponents.

The JV's also had an excellent season, and showed great potential for next year.

GOLF

The 1967 Golf Team, under the able guidance of Fr. Griffin, S.J., was one of the strongest in Loyola's history. The team was led by Chris Rasmussen, the anchor man on the squad. "Ras" lived up to his job, with many startling performances. The number two spot was occupied by Junior Jim Imire, who was one of the key reasons for Loyola's success. Jim Schuck, a Junior, proved a surprise to all, and seems destined for greatness. Senior Terry McKenzie, the number four man, was a strong player and a constant standout at the matches. Seniors Tim Scott, Jay Raven, and Eric Lamond, and Juniors Bill Luecke, and John Sheller rounded out the squad.

Although not as outstanding as last year's, this year's track team had a very good season; coaches Valenti and Igoloi called the team one of the best balanced that they had ever coached.

There were a number of outstanding distance runners. Leading the milers were Jim Dumas, Andy Thorpe, and Vince Cheap, while Roger Murray, Pete McLaughlin, and Allan Sibley competed in the two-mile. In the 880, Dennis Murphy, Larry DiCarlo, and Steve Rasch showed great form, while Larry McMahon and Tom Clarke led in the 440.

Filling the shoes of last year's sprinters Henry Harris and Tom Evertson were Keith Renty, who ran a consistent 10.1, and Charlie Adams, with a steady 10.3. Both Renty and Adams showed well in the 220, with times of 23.3 and 23.4 respectively.

The hurdlers were a strong point in this year's team. Senior Dave Meihaus, who was outstanding as a Junior, had a tremendous year. Two Juniors, Tom Okabe and Jeff Harbison, proved themselves able runners, and promised great things for next year.

The JV team boasted fine sprinters Joe Muto and Chris Randolph in the 100 yard dash. Dave Jingu and John McGonigle were both steady performers in the 100 and 220 sprints, while Rob Morrell and Paul Pan proved great competitors in the quarter mile. Pat DeSantis and John Prietto did remarkably well in the hurdles. The C's, meanwhile, showed great promise as next year's JV's, with Kawahara, Girard, and Brayman leading the way.

With only four returning Seniors, coaches Fr. Duggan and Mr. Crillo, S.J., did wonders with the field events team. In the high jump, Seniors Bob Duncan and Roger O'Brien both cleared the 6-foot mark, while outstanding Sophomore Ted Barry cleared 5-foot-11.

In the long jump the Cubs again had the Duncan-O'Brien combination; both jumped over 21 feet. Also prominent in the long jump was Junior John Colefrancesco, who reached the 20-foot mark.

Seniors Grabiell and Conde led the field in the pole vault with vaults of 10 and 11 feet, respectively. Junior Terry Abts did well with a mark of 9 feet.

In the shot put there were such noteworthy figures as Pete McCann, "Tiny" Edwards, and John Giovannone, all of whom had a put of 40 feet.

BASEBALL

VARSIITY

Led by their new head coach, Charles "Duke" Russell, Loyola fielded a very representative team this year. Senior pitcher Ron Billi and Junior hurlers Brian Green and Stu Taylor led the way for the Cubs. Backing up the fine combination on the mound were Senior sluggers Terry Mackprang and Tim Johnson, with Juniors Guy Gaumont, Barry Preisler, and Tony Greco adding the extra punch. A quick and agile infield was led by Ed Moore, Tom Tolman, Bernie Clougherty, Jim Ragsdale, and Mike Gogan while the catching chores were handled superbly by Tim "Ace" McDonald and Bill Agopian. Throughout the season the Cubs showed their spirit, their will to win, and another rewarding year developed for them.

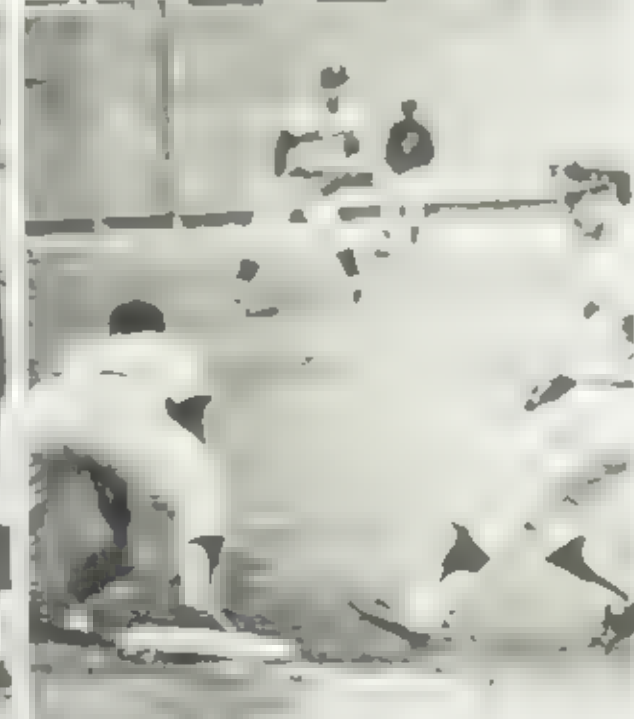

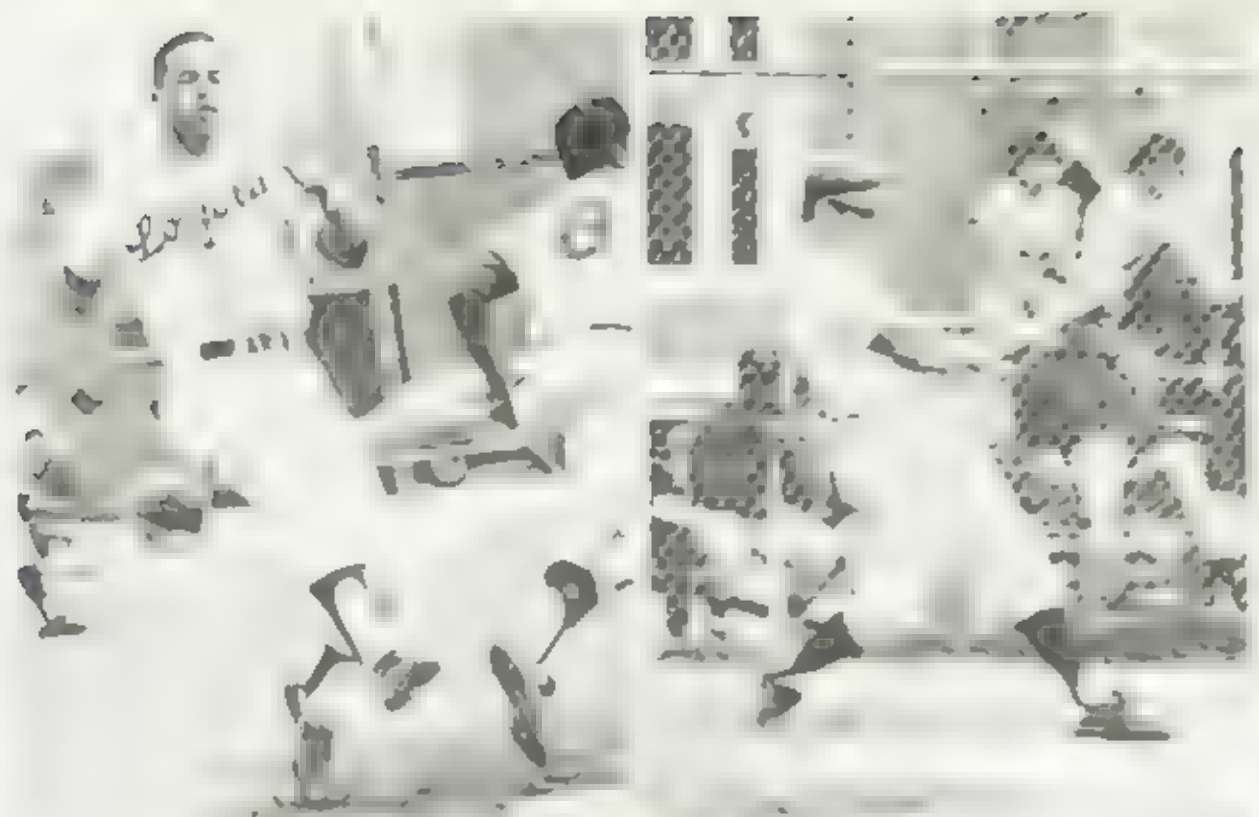

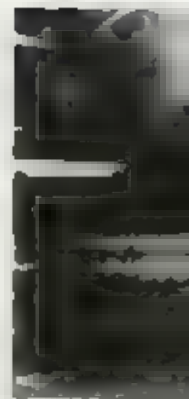

The JV baseball team, under the coaching of Mr. Thomas McCambridge, showed strong throughout the season. Pitching for the team were Chris Rastery, Brian Scherhart, Gerard Lollie, Joe Krier, and Bob Fitzgerald. The infield was led by Monty Cleeves, Tony Clougherty, and Tom Hutchison, while Don Shaw, Frank Page, and Bill Corr supported in the outfield.

INTRAMURALS

The start of the school year also brought the start of the school intramural program. This, the most popular of all extra-curricular activities, provides the students with the opportunity to prove that they are better than the varsity.

The football intramurals opened strong and fast. In the Senior field, 4F, a dark horse team, rose from the depths of mediocrity and snatched the lead. The race for the Junior title was very close, with 3G, led by Kelly and Cogan, winding out on top. In the finals for the school championship, the Freshman and Sophomore entrants dropped out early, and 4F finally won the honors.

The basketball intramurals, as in past years, concluded with shows of excellent, good, and horrible play. After a slow start, 4A took the lead in the Senior division, with 4F close behind. Intramural Commissioner Rick McLaughlin then established a new type of tournament, in which underclassmen played the upperclassmen directly, without going through a series of tiring internal play-offs. 4A again came off with the honors, but 3D unexpectedly defeated 4F, and then went to beat 4E. The final play-offs proved a spectacle beyond belief, and the faculty, mindful of their up-coming game with the winners, cringed in terror on the outskirts of the courts.

THE GLASS

This year The Glass published its second edition. Mr. Sawaya, the moderator, René Borboa, the editor, and a most competent staff of writers and artists produced a literary work of a caliber rarely found on a high school campus. Poetry, short stories, and sketches filled the magazine with the reflections of many Loyola students. With this edition it is hoped that The Glass will become a permanent member in Loyola's literary life.

JCL

One of the newest student organizations at Loyola is the Junior Classical League. Originally composed of Fr. Playoust's Greek II class, the group has grown rapidly, and now has over 50 members. Dedicated to "hand on the torch of classical civilization to the modern world," the JCL this year participated in several local and statewide activities, and sponsored a banquet for the surrounding chapters.

MEN'S CHORUS

After a lapse of a year, Loyola again has a student group of singers. Formerly the Glee Club, the Men's Chorus has 25 members under the moderation of Mr. F. Lee, S.J. Besides a program of Christmas caroling and singing at the First Friday Masses, Chorus members appeared in lead and chorus roles in Loyola's "Mikado."

KARATE

The Seniors' Karate Club is Loyola's newest student group. Composed of 15 members under the direction of Mr. Buschleman, the Club has a three-fold purpose: to provide a character-building organization; to teach an effective form of self-defense; and to provide an enjoyable sport.

The goal of the Drama Club at Loyola is to promote an active interest in the dramatic arts. This year the Club produced two fine plays: first the dramatic pageant "Richelieu," and then Gilbert & Sullivan's "The Mikado." But the year did not stop with these plays; work went on, first in the Art Festival, and later in the one-act play contest. In addition, the Club sponsored visits to the Fox and the Paramount Studios, dramatic readings, and various musicals produced around town.

Heading the Drama Club this year are: Mike Taylor, President; Barney Alfs, Vice-President; Larry DiCarlo, Secretary; Fred Casteneda, Treasurer; and that popular man on campus, Mr. John Cser, moderator.

SPEECH

Many great ideas have perhaps been lost because men have been unable to express themselves. It has been the objective of the Loyola Speech Club to train students in the vital art of communication. Under the guidance of Mr. Thomas McGill, S.J., Mr. Bob Fabing, S.J., and assistant Mr. Richard Bini, S.J. and through the diligent work of the club officers, President Jim Miller, Vice-President Dennis Winston, Secretary Paul Soukup, and Correspondence Secretary Jim Yee, the team placed well in all tournaments, winning honors in, among others the Villa Cabrini Invitational and the Catholic Grand Tournament.

The Christian Action Movement (Society) of Loyola High School is an effort to direct the energies of love and sharing among the students into positive action. During the past year the Movement has offered opportunities to the student body to participate in the lay apostolate on whatever level they feel themselves capable.

Functionally, these opportunities are given through the work of the Christian Action Council—a group composed of various service projects. This year, Loyola students have worked as tutors and helpers at the Head Start School; they have participated in interfaith prayer services and Home Visit projects; they have sent books to high school students in Mpima, Zambia and have furnished money to support a teen club in Mexico City.

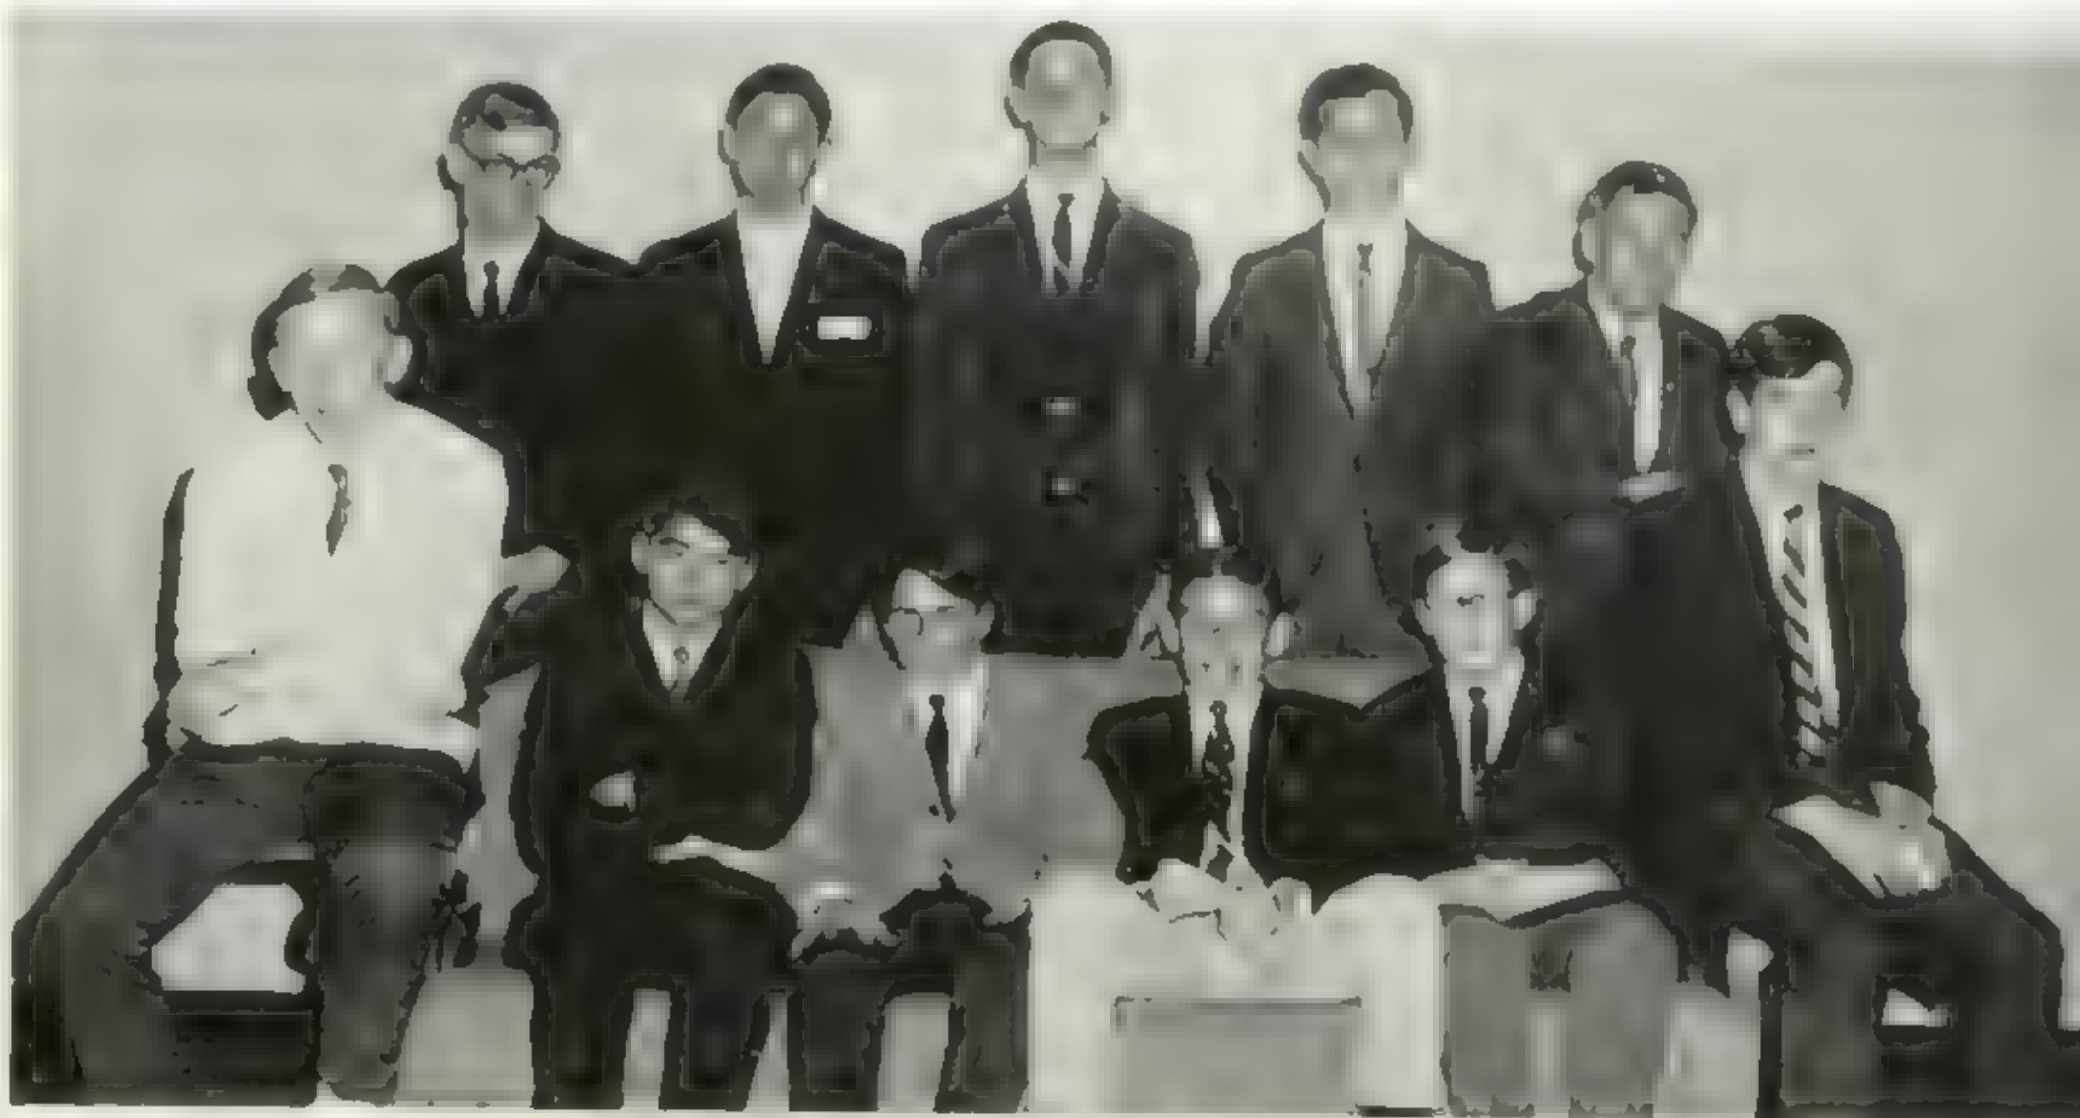

Christians believe that the source and goal of their lives is made present in the sacrifice of the Eucharist. Each day at Loyola students have gathered with faculty members to unite themselves, their relatives, friends, and needs to this center of human life. It is in the Spirit of love given to the world in Christ that the Christian Action Movement has offered itself to Loyola and to the needs of their neighbors.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club has done much this year to fulfill its goal of promoting French culture on campus. Such varied activities as movies and a dance, open to all students, were sponsored by the Club. Under the able guidance of Mr. Traina, the French Club looks forward to more years of such social and intellectual activities.
